

Tina Coffin

How many classes/years have you taught at LifeQuest?

- Taught Telling Your Story since, I think, 2012.

Please list your most recent job title:

- I am retired from my teaching jobs ( History and language in the Netherlands, Mathematics at UALR in Little Rock)
- Now publish a small Quaker magazine.

What is your educational background?

- Studied History and Dutch at the University of Utrecht
- English and French at the University of Tennessee
- Mathematics at UALR

Please list experiences, awards or recognition you've had which are related (or not!) to your upcoming class topic:

- Oh my, I haven't received any rewards, but, Hendrix College gave me a nice plaque for outstanding teaching when I left after teaching there for 2 years, and I had several articles published in Dutch and American magazines.

Please tell us why you like to (or are interested in) teaching at LifeQuest:

- I love to read, I love to write and love to hear peoples' stories. It is a privilege to facilitate the Telling Your Story class.

List three distinctive personal facts about yourself:

1. I can't seem to get rid of my Dutch accent, although nice people tell me it is charming.
2. I am a fan of classical music and play it as loudly as possible when no one is around.
3. I won't eat broccoli, unless I am a dinner guest at someone's house. Then, as my mother taught me, I pretend to like it.
