Please tell us why you like to (or are interested in) teaching at LifeQuest:

- I have always believed that "passing on knowledge" whenever you can or have the ability to do so is an obligation and a privilege. I also believe it helps keep my mind active and sharp (relatively speaking, ha!), and provides me with something I enjoy doing (since my retirement from PA last year). Plus, I LOVE the people and staff!

List three distinctive personal facts about yourself:

1. I love riding motorcycles, particularly in the mountains of Western Arkansas.
2. I have developed a growing love of art and visiting great museums in recent years, including the Louvre and Musee' D'Orsay in Paris, the Smithsonians, the Getty in

LA, the major museums in Dallas/Ft. Worth, British Museum and Tate in London, Anthropology Museum in Mexico City, Deutsches Museum in Munich, the Alte Pinakothek in Nuremberg, Peace Park Museum in Hiroshima, several others in Kyoto, Beijing and Xian in China, and of course, Crystal Bridges in Bentonville. (Also, many small museums in lots of places can be very surprising!)

3. I DO HAVE a nice-sized collection of “native” or “aboriginal” masks from several countries, such as Indonesia, Nigeria, Ghana, the Congo, Ivory Coast, Japan, Korea, Peru, Mexico, China, India, Greece, and more).
