

“Madame” Sue Mistic

How many classes/years have you taught at LifeQuest?

- I have been coming to Life Q since I retired in 2013. I have taught one class, FRENCH FOR TRAVELERS, last winter quarter, and will be teaching (with Sharon Sellars again) MORE French for Travelers this winter.

Please list your most recent job title:

- Most recent job title: prof de francais

What is your educational background?

- 40 years of secondary school teaching of Biology, General Science, English, Anatomy and Physiology, and especially French.
- B.A. with teaching credential , majoring in French, minors in Biology, General Science, and English, from UCA Conway
- M.A. in French literature, U of A Fayetteville
- Many continuing education hours.
- This past summer I also became certified as an English as A Second Language Trainer by the Sorthern Baptist Convention
- I currently teach ESL each Tuesday night at my church. If you know someone who would benefit from free English lessons, send them my way!

Please list experiences, awards or recognition you've had which are related (or not!) to your upcoming class topic:

- Stephens Award for Outstanding Educator, 1997.
- President of Arkansas Chapter of American Association of Teachers of French, 6 years; VP for 10.
- Marty Dewese Achievement Award for Teachers of French, 2 years.
- Head of the Second Language Department of Mount St. Mary Academy for many years.
- Traveled to France 13 times, 10 of those leading student groups. My 14th time is scheduled for April 2017. President of Singles Council at Park Hill Baptist Church.
- Mother of Vikki and Juli; grandmother ("Mimi") of Matthew and Madison.

Please tell us why you like to (or are interested in) teaching at LifeQuest:

- I enjoy teaching, and Life Quest gave this retired teacher an opportunity to share the French language and culture with more students--plus co-teach with Sharon.

List three distinctive personal facts about yourself:

1. God has greatly blessed me all my life.
2. I love teaching, especially teaching French.
3. I am excited to meet new people and get to know them, and to renew acquaintances with old friends.
