Thank You

LifeQuest salutes three board directors whose terms end with 2015: Elaine Scott, Ann West and Bill Lyford. Each has given dedicated service in multiple capacities. Thank you for your service.

Give to LifeQuest this Holiday

As the holiday season approaches and 2015 comes to a close, I hope you will reflect on what LifeQuest means to you and consider making a year-end donation.

A gift to LifeQuest in someone's honor is a good way to recognize a friend, an instructor or a staff member. Registration fees do not cover all the costs of coordinating and running Adventures in Learning classes. Your contributions will help keep LifeQuest a vibrant organization.

Thank you for your continued support of this incredible organization. I hope to see you all in the halls during 2016!

- Fred Ursery, 2016 Board Chair

Happy Retirement, Jane Gordon

After 25 years with LifeQuest of Arkansas, Jane Gordon has announced her retirement, effective January 30. Jane has seen LifeQuest through many trials, joys and transitions: changes in locations, leadership, staff, board members, technology and budgets. She has been an amazing asset to our organization and will truly be missed. Jane, even though our hearts are sad, we are excited for you and the next chapter of your life. Thank you for 25 wonderful years!

Baber Endowment Fund Established

The Barbara Woods Baber Endowed Fund for LifeQuest of Arkansas was recently established in honor of Barbara's recent birthday. The surprise announcement was made at the October 21 luncheon during Adventures in Learning. Barbara's daughter, Greer Baber Grace, and Greer's husband Barnett Grace together made the initial deposit of $25,000.

The fund is maintained by the Arkansas Community Foundation. The principal in an endowed fund is never touched; it is invested and a small percentage (usually 4%) of the accumulated earnings is paid out annually to the organization. The payout will go toward the annual operating budget, which helps LifeQuest cover the costs to run Adventures in Learning. Anyone can contribute to the fund to help it grow. Endowment gifts, made in addition to annual gifts, are a wonderful way to support LifeQuest.
