A SELECTION OF LIFEQUEST INSTRUCTOR BIOGRAPHIES SUMMER 2017 TERM

BILL FULTON—*Magic for Grandparents and Basic Drawing

How many classes/years have you taught at LifeQuest? Magic since 2014 and Basic Drawing since 2015

Please list your most recent job title: Student teacher observer for UALR and Amethyst the Wizard with the Arkansas Masters of Illusion. I worked as the science specialist for the Arkansas Department of Education for 36 years.

Please share experiences, awards or recognition you've had which are related (or not!) to your upcoming class topic: I flunked Art 101 at LRU in the 60s but have since improved. Presidential Award in Environmental Quality, 1972. You will have to figure out which President for I am not telling. Magician of the Year from the local International Brotherhood of Magicians 1997.

Please tell us why you like to (or are interested in) teaching at LifeQuest: I love being with people my age that still have all their marbles and then some. Plus they are the nicest people around.

List three distinctive personal facts about yourself:

1. I am married to Liz Fulton.
2. I have been on Death Row at Cummins Prison.
3. I am a part-time Wizard and storyteller when my wife approves. The rest of the time I am just Bill.

GARRETT McAINSH—*Some Interesting Women

How many classes/years have you taught at LifeQuest? Since 2005

Please list your most recent job title: Harold & Lucy Cabe distinguished Professor of History, Hendrix College

Please share experiences, awards or recognition you've had which are related (or not!) to your upcoming class topic: Over 40 years of teaching courses on European history at Hendrix College

Please tell us why you like to (or are interested in) teaching at LifeQuest: It gives me great pleasure to read about and then talk about European history. The people who come to my classes are unfailingly bright, engaged, and grateful, which makes teaching at LifeQuest doubly pleasurable.

List three distinctive personal facts about yourself:

1. My wife, Judy, works part-time at Little Rock's Visitors Information Center at Curran Hall.
2. The funniest book I have ever read is Sue Townsend's The Secret Diary of Adrian Mole (1982).
3. When I am not nattering on about European history at LifeQuest, Judy and I have taken a number of Mediterranean cruises where I give lectures on the history of the ports we will be visiting.

JEANNE ROLLBERG—*Uncovering Our Ancestors' American Dreams

How many classes/years have you taught at LifeQuest? This is my second summer and fifth class.

Please list your most recent job title: Principal, American Dream Genealogy and Research until May, 2016: Associate Professor of Journalism at UALR

What is your educational background? B.A. in History. M.A. in Journalism

Please share experiences, awards or recognition you've had which are related (or not!) to your upcoming class topic: Genealogy travel, genealogy research/writing of blogs and articles; Associate editor, Sweden & America magazine; Genealogy specialist, AncestorCloud (Provo, Utah); Genealogy specialist, Genlighten (California); Recipient of university-level award for public service at UALR

Please tell us why you like to (or are interested in) teaching at LifeQuest: Family history is a passion, and my goal is to reach two groups: retirement-age adults and high school students

List three distinctive personal facts about yourself:

1. I want election seasons to be shorter and more civil.
2. I was born on Halloween. Scorpios rock (but beware)!
3. I used to be a ballroom dance competitor.
