

Rich Roy

When did you begin teaching at LifeQuest?

- I began working with Ralph McKenna in his Folk Music Class. I joined Ralph, Joe Lombardi, and Mick Rigby to form the LQ Folkies. I think we have been doing this about 3-4 years, mainly during the spring and fall terms each year.

Please list your most recent job title:

- I retired in March 2009 from Heifer Project International. I was a Program Financial Analyst and worked with the Program Division and the Central and Eastern Europe area program

What is your educational background?

- I graduated from Hendrix College in 1966 with a BA degree in Economics and Business. I briefly attended UA Little Rock in the Master of Public Administration degree program in the late 1970's.

Please list experiences, awards or recognition you've had which are related (or not!) to your upcoming class topic:

- I volunteer with other singer/songwriter friends and present folk music programs at various Nursing Homes/Assisted Living Facilities. I also sing special music at my church and present a Sunday Folk Music program once or twice each year.

Please tell us why you like to (or are interested in) teaching at LifeQuest:

- It is an exciting, continuing learning experience for me, personally, and I get to work with a wonderful group of presenters.

List three distinctive personal facts about yourself:

- Celebrated 30-year wedding anniversary in 2019!
- I volunteer at the Clinton Presidential Center & Library and the Clinton School of Public Service.
- I have three (3) adult children, six (6) grandchildren and, at the present time, four (4) great-grandchildren.
