

Angela Sewall

How many classes/years have you taught at LifeQuest?

- This will be the first class that I have taught at LifeQuest.

Please list your most recent job title:

- Dean, College of Education at UALR and Professor of Educational Leadership, National Consultant helping universities enhance teaching and learning, while also working with new Deans and Department Chairs to help them in their new roles.

What is your educational background?

- BAs in Political Science and Philosophy (St. Mary's College and Notre Dame), MA in International Law (St. Louis University), post-grad.
- Studies in History (Stanford University), EDS, U. of Arkansas, EdD, U. of Arkansas, IEM certificate (Harvard)

Please list experiences, awards or recognition you've had which are related (or not!) to your upcoming class topic:

- Invited Participant in Artes Liberales, Warsaw, Poland to help return liberal arts to the Curriculum of Universities in Eastern and Central Europe after the collapse of the Berlin Wall.
- Recipient of the Edward C. Pomeroy Award for Outstanding Contributions to Teacher Education (AACTE)

Please tell us why you like to (or are interested in) teaching at LifeQuest:

- It is fun and hopefully beneficial to all to share ideas, knowledge and experiences so we all learn together.

List three distinctive personal facts about yourself:

1. I was lucky enough to travel broadly during my childhood and to experience historical events and see artifacts, multiple cultures and experience different world views. That has impacted my life and perspectives.
2. Among my favorite things are reading, dogs, literature, opera and oil painting.
3. My husband and I love to travel but only after reading everything we can about what we will see and hope to see.
4. A quote "You can't go back and change the beginning, but you can start where you are and change the ending." C.S. Lewis