

Nancy Fleming

When did you begin teaching at LifeQuest?

- Spring 2016

Please list your most recent job title:

- Professor Emerita of Music, Hendrix College

What is your educational background?

- BA (music) Mt. Holyoke College
- MMus (choral conducting) Westminster Choir College
- DMA (choral music) University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana

Please list experiences, awards or recognition you've had which are related (or not!) to your upcoming class topic:

- I taught music history and appreciation at the college level for over thirty years. I also directed the Hendrix College Choir for 28 years.

Please tell us why you like to (or are interested in) teaching at LifeQuest:

- It is a joy to teach at LifeQuest! The students are attentive and appreciative. They are thoroughly engaged in the material and ask interesting and thoughtful questions. As a result I also grow and learn more about music – and teaching -- as I prepare and present the classes.

List three distinctive personal facts about yourself:

1. I was born in Puerto Rico and raised bilingual in Spanish and English.
2. My husband and I never had any children but we have had dogs for most of our married life (45 years). Our current fur-babies are Teddy Bear, a beautiful American Eskimo Dog, and Lola, a black-and-white Cockapoo.
3. I have been a volunteer for Heifer International since 2015. I also enjoy making Little Dresses for Africa.
