

Bonnie Melchoir

When did you begin teaching at LifeQuest?

- 2011

Please list your most recent job title:

- Professor, UCA

What is your educational background?

- Stanford Phi Beta Kappa, UCLA Masters, U of Oregon doctorate

Please list experiences, awards or recognition you've had which are related (or not!) to your upcoming class topic:

- I have published articles in various journals on a variety of topics, some on Shakespeare's plays.

Please tell us why you like to (or are interested in) teaching at LifeQuest:

- The alert and intelligent LifeQuest students are a joy to be around. They ask Great questions, make interesting comments and don't play video games during class (at least they don't let me see them.)

List three distinctive personal facts about yourself:

1. I have always loved both being a student and being a teacher (and the two are reciprocal.)
2. I miss teaching, though not the paperwork, grading and queries as to whether "this will be on the test."
3. Asking questions and interacting with open-minded folks of diverse backgrounds is even more stimulating and challenging than duplicate bridge, my favorite hobby (obsession?)
