Tribute Gifts

Tribute gifts provide a way to donate to an organization in someone's memory or honor. A gift made in someone's honor allows you to support your (or a loved one's) favorite cause while answering the question, "What do you get for the person who has everything?"

At LifeQuest, we consider these gifts extremely meaningful. They make an impact and touch multiple people: the person making the gift, the person honored by the gift, and those who benefit from the gift. It is truly a win-win-win.
